

Minutes of Steering Group 18th January 2018

Present: Alistair, Anu, Christine, Dan N, Diane, Hellen, Jane C, Jane H, Julia, Kim, Kirsty, Lorraine, Nicholas, Norman, Peter, Richard, Sarah, Sue D, Sue Z, Robin, Sue M (Town Clerk), Liz (Plan-et), Becky (Plan-et)Apologies: Brian, HeatherImage: The last meeting had been largely playing with Post-It notes so there were no proper minutes to approve. Norman welcomed new members, also Sue Moffat (Town Clerk) and Liz and Becky from Plan-et and recapped on how we had got to this point.NormanWebsite: The website gxplan.co.uk now has a timeline, thanks to Hellen, showing activity so far. There were several ideas for what should go on the website but as we wanted to focus on the objectives at this meeting, Norman would email the suggestions to everyone to give feedback and get a general consensus.NormanResults from Public Consultation Event: • Liz and Becky had analysed the results from the public consultation, compared them with our original objectives and come up with 17 objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.Figure Halte Hese.
Robin, Sue M (Town Clerk), Liz (Plan-et), Becky (Plan-et)Apologies: Brian, HeatherMinutes: The last meeting had been largely playing with Post-It notes so there were no proper minutes to approve. Norman welcomed new members, also Sue Moffat (Town Clerk) and Liz and Becky from Plan-et and recapped on how we had got to this point.Website: The website gxplan.co.uk now has a timeline, thanks to Hellen, showing activity so far. There were several ideas for what should go on the website but as we wanted to focus on the objectives at this meeting, Norman would email the suggestions to everyone to give feedback and get a general consensus.NormanResults from Public Consultation Event: • Liz and Becky had analysed the results from the public consultation, compared them with our original objectives and come up with 17 objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.Figure 1000000000000000000000000000000000000
Apologies:Brian, HeatherMinutes:The last meeting had been largely playing with Post-It notes so there were no proper minutes to approve. Norman welcomed new members, also Sue Moffat (Town Clerk) and Liz and Becky from Plan-et and recapped on how we had got to this point.Website:The website gxplan.co.uk now has a timeline, thanks to Hellen, showing activity so far.Norman were several ideas for what should go on the website but as we wanted to focus on the objectives at this meeting, Norman would email the suggestions to everyone to give feedback and get a general consensus.NormanResults from Public Consultation Event: • Liz and Becky had analysed the results from the public consultation, compared them with our original objectives and come up with 17 objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix Minutes: The last meeting had been largely playing with Post-It notes so there were no proper minutes to approve. Norman welcomed new members, also Sue Moffat (Town Clerk) and Liz and Becky from Plan-et and recapped on how we had got to this point.Website: The website gxplan.co.uk now has a timeline, thanks to Hellen, showing activity so far. There were several ideas for what should go on the website but as we wanted to focus on the objectives at this meeting, Norman would email the suggestions to everyone to give feedback and get a general consensus.NormanResults from Public Consultation Event: • Liz and Becky had analysed the results from the public consultation, compared them with our original objectives and come up with 17 objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix there were no proper minutes to approve. Norman welcomed new members, also Sue Moffat (Town Clerk) and Liz and Becky from Plan-et and recapped on how we had got to this point.Norman-et and members, also Sue Moffat (Town Clerk) and Liz and Becky from Plan-et and recapped on how we had got to this point.Website: The website gxplan.co.uk now has a timeline, thanks to Hellen, showing activity so far. There were several ideas for what should go on the website but as we wanted to focus on the objectives at this meeting, Norman would email the suggestions to everyone to give feedback and get a general consensus.NormanResults from Public Consultation Event: • Liz and Becky had analysed the results from the public consultation, compared them with our original objectives and come up with 17 objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix members, also Sue Moffat (Town Clerk) and Liz and Becky from Plan-et and recapped on how we had got to this point.Image: Comparison of the compar recapped on how we had got to this point.Image: constraint of the second se <ul> <li>Website: The website gxplan.co.uk now has a timeline, thanks to Hellen, showing activity so far. There were several ideas for what should go on the website but as we wanted to focus on the objectives at this meeting, Norman would email the suggestions to everyone to give feedback and get a general consensus.</li> <li>Results from Public Consultation Event: <ul> <li>Liz and Becky had analysed the results from the public consultation, compared them with our original objectives and come up with 17 objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.</li> <li>They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>showing activity so far. There were several ideas for what should go on the website but as we wanted to focus on the objectives at this meeting, Norman would email the suggestions to everyone to give feedback and get a general consensus.</li> <li>Results from Public Consultation Event:         <ul> <li>Liz and Becky had analysed the results from the public consultation, compared them with our original objectives and come up with 17 objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.</li> <li>They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>website but as we wanted to focus on the objectives at this meeting, Norman would email the suggestions to everyone to give feedback and get a general consensus.</li> <li>Results from Public Consultation Event: <ul> <li>Liz and Becky had analysed the results from the public consultation, compared them with our original objectives and come up with 17 objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.</li> <li>They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Norman would email the suggestions to everyone to give feedback and get a general consensus.</li> <li>Results from Public Consultation Event: <ul> <li>Liz and Becky had analysed the results from the public consultation, compared them with our original objectives and come up with 17 objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.</li> <li>They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix</li> </ul> </li> </ul> general consensus.Results from Public Consultation Event:• Liz and Becky had analysed the results from the public consultation, compared them with our original objectives and come up with 17 objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.• They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix <ul> <li>Results from Public Consultation Event:         <ul> <li>Liz and Becky had analysed the results from the public consultation, compared them with our original objectives and come up with 17 objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.</li> <li>They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Liz and Becky had analysed the results from the public consultation, compared them with our original objectives and come up with 17 objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.</li> <li>They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>compared them with our original objectives and come up with 17 objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.</li> <li>They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>objectives from which it would be possible to draft a skeleton plan. They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.</li> <li>They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>They needed to confirm that they understood what we had meant.</li> <li>They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>They explained that many of the comments from the public related to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix</li> </ul>
to community aspirations. It would be possible to have an appendix which listed these.
• The test was, 'does it need planning permission?' If yes, it can go in the plan. Also, 'could a developer contribute if it goes in?' If yes, it can be a planning objective and would then need to be supported by evidence.
The 17 objectives were:
1. TOWN CENTRE
Objective 1: Resist the re-use of retail premises for residential development
Objective 2: Re-use or redevelop empty premises where possible;
Objective 3: Encourage designs of shop fronts in keeping with the Gerrards Cross objective 5. Encourage designs of shop nones in keeping with the defialds closs
Shop Front Design Guide
Shop Front Design Guide
Shop Front Design GuideObjective 4:Encourage and support new businesses and retail opportunities in <ul> <li>Shop Front Design Guide</li> <li>Objective 4: Encourage and support new businesses and retail opportunities in order to maintain the vibrant feel of a thriving town centre that is the hub of the local community.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Shop Front Design Guide</li> <li>Objective 4: Encourage and support new businesses and retail opportunities in order to maintain the vibrant feel of a thriving town centre that is the hub of the local community.</li> <li>HOUSING</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Shop Front Design Guide</li> <li>Objective 4: Encourage and support new businesses and retail opportunities in order to maintain the vibrant feel of a thriving town centre that is the hub of the local community.</li> </ul>

Objective 7:		ing mix that meets the needs of the community
Objective 8:	including the provision of smaller one and two bed properties tive 8: Where appropriate and possible, retain and redevelop existing
Objective 8:	buildings	nate and possible, retain and redevelop existing
Objective 9:	Encourage great discouraging gr
3. TRAFFI
Objective 10:	10: Manage the growing volume of traffic
Objective 11:		g for commuters, shoppers and residents.
Objective 12:	Provide more of promote a hea
Community As	· ·	e a better bus service that extends late into the ume of traffic and promote a healthy lifestyle.
4. ENVIR
Objective 13:	DRMENT	visting Groop Bolt around the town
Objective 13. Objective 14:		xisting Green Belt around the town rotect woodlands, commons and green open spaces
Objective 14.		tant to the community of Gerrards Cross
Objective 15:		ping and planting schemes where possible are
0.0.00000000000000000000000000000000000		implemented within all new developments
Objective 16:		strategic gap between Gerrards Cross and Beaconsfield
Community As	piration: mainta	in and improve planting schemes in communal areas and en	courage new plantings in the town centre.
5. LEISUR	E, COMMUNITY	2 & HEALTH
Objective 17:		priate space for the provision of a new GP surgery
within Gerrards Cross
Community As		Ensure adequate parks and playing fields are
-	-	provided to mitigate any development
Community Aspiration : Support and improve sports and community facilities.
The meeting a	greed that the	ese fairly represented what the group wanted and a skeleton plan could be based on them. It was emphasised that these will change as we work on them and consult further.
-		that do not make it into the plan should still be acknowledged and used by passing them on to the relevant council or body and by reporting this in the village magazine.
<ul> <li>There could be a page on the website to record community aspirations. Interest groups could then take these up.</li> </ul>
-
-	next meeting:
It will take Plan-et at least a month to complete the work. They will let us know when it would be appropriate to hold the next meeting. Diane In the meantime they suggested we had a rest as there would be a lot of work coming up. New sub-groups would be formed to carry out the work of finding evidence.
• Sub-g
bodie
eg the need for a GP surgery, parking, and cycle paths. Norman will circulate a list of council groups working on relevant topics so those interested can get involved and there can be co –operation and synergy. There is also detailed research available on the SBDC website – see evidence base for the Chiltern & South Bucks Emerging Local Plan 2014-2036	Norman

Meeting ended 8.40pm	